AUCTION & RAFFLES

DESSERT & COFFEE

GOOD EVENING!

Thank you for joining us tonight for Hailey's Hope Foundation's Fifth Annual Dinner Auction Fundraiser. As we enjoy this evening, we have the joy of knowing that our efforts have brought hope, comfort and essential support to over 1,300 NICU families in need as they face and cope with the challenges of caring for their babies in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU).

2013 has been a fantastic year for Hailey's Hope Foundation. We are proud to celebrate two significant milestones — our 5-year anniversary with the Regional NICU (Level IV) at Maria Fareri Children's Hospital (at Westchester Medical Center) in Valhalla, and the distribution of support to Hailey's Hope Foundation's 1,000th family—The Bruno Family. We are also excited for the re-launch of Hailey's Hope Foundation's website this summer, which will prove to be an even greater resource for NICU families.

As more and more families are faced with the reality of having babies born prematurely and critically ill, the demand for Hailey's Hope Foundation's unique and essential support continues to grow. Among the 30-40 applications for assistance we receive each month, no family has been denied support. Additionally, we have been able to extend our reach to assist NICU families at New York Presbyterian/Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital (NYC), Blythedale Children's Hospital (Westchester County), and St. Luke's Hospital (Orange County). We have made tremendous progress, yet there is still much more to be done. Your support this evening will bring us closer to our goals to fulfill the financial, emotional and educational needs of NICU families and to help improve the quality of NICU care. Together, we can give every NICU baby and family a greater fighting chance!

It is truly inspiring to see the generosity of family, friends and supporters who have helped us raise over $725,000 since we formed in December 2007. We will continue to work hard to be a valuable support system for NICU families during this critical time.

Thank you for your generosity this evening. We are deeply grateful to you and look forward to your continued support.

Yours truly,

Jeffrey Randazzo

Hailey’s Hope Foundation supports families with premature and critically ill babies in New York-area NICUs (Neonatal Intensive Care Units) and improves the quality of NICU care so these babies can have the best possible beginnings in life. When babies are born too early, too small, or very sick, it is crucial for their families to be involved in their care as much as possible. However, many are unprepared for the emotional and financial challenges of a NICU hospitalization. Parents often fear the unknown and struggle to cope with the demands of daily life (i.e., work, home and childcare), not to mention exhausting NICU visits and commutes. By providing financial assistance, emotional support, and educational information, we help NICU families manage this difficult time and become their baby’s best advocate. We also fund clinical neonatal research and work closely with NICUs to help give more babies a greater fighting chance.

As a grassroots, volunteer-based, 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, we carry out our mission through targeted programs and initiatives:

- Financial Assistance: A NICU stay can last weeks or months, and the additional expenses can quickly become a serious hardship, especially for economically strained families. We help families in need with non-medical expenses, from lodging and transportation to breast pump rentals and meals, so they can spend as much time as possible at the hospital with their baby and NICU team.
- Education & Resources: Families can use our website (www.haileyshopefoundation.org) to access educational information, neonatal research and other resources, including a growing community of NICU parents who share their experience. Our longer-term goals include developing in-hospital NICU family resource centers and parent support groups.
- Specialized Care Packages: Leaving the highly specialized, 24-hour care of NICU doctors and nurses is daunting for any parent. At discharge, we supply families with care packages to help ease the anxiety of transitioning home with their tiny miracles. Our packages contain baby care items, supplies and important information about post-NICU issues, including local resources for early intervention.
- Partnership With NICUs: We work closely with NICU doctors, nurses and social workers to help them improve care. They know better than anyone where support is needed, whether it’s breastfeeding advocacy, medical supplies or specialized equipment. The NICU nursing staff is on the front lines everyday and helps us target our efforts to what families and babies need most.

Hailey’s Hope Foundation was created in December 2007 by four couples that endured many NICU crises together and saw first hand the startling void in family support during one of the most difficult times in their lives. We are working hard to be a valuable resource for NICU families, to give a voice to their needs, and to make their NICU paths a little easier to walk. Currently we are partnered with The Regional Neonatal Center at Maria Fareri Children’s Hospital (Westchester Medical Center) and the new Rowley Birthing Center at Orange Regional Medical Center. Additionally, we have provided support to NICU families at New York-Presbyterian Morgan Stanley Children’s Hospital, Blythedale Children’s Hospital, and St. Luke’s Cornwall Hospital. To date, we have raised over $725,000, provided support to over 1,300 NICU families and purchased essential medical equipment and supplies for the NICU.

Hailey’s Hope Foundation was created in loving memory of our little angel, Hailey, the daughter of Board members, Isaac and Donna Zion, who was born prematurely and passed away shortly after birth in 2003.

THE BRUNO FAMILY AND BABY DOMINIC THEIR NICU STORY

When a couple learns the news that they are expecting, there are many emotions that are immediately felt and we begin imagining our baby and the first moment we meet our child. We picture counting fingers and toes and cuddling a precious new life while surrounded by friends and family. When my husband and I greeted our son Dominic, I was only able to give him a quick kiss on the cheek before doctors rushed him away to the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit. He was born at 32 weeks gestation and his lungs were not fully developed so he couldn't breathe on his own and needed immediate assistance. He was fighting hard but 3 days after his birth we were told he needed to be transferred from Orange Regional Hospital to Maria Fareri Children's Hospital in Westchester, NY. I will never forget that moment...my husband and I were resting in my hospital room when a doctor rushed in and told us that there was "something seriously wrong with our baby's lung for which he needs a special type of ventilator and must be transferred immediately." I swear my heart stopped beating for a second and then I broke down. As we watched our son being carefully packed up in a transport incubator we met Debra Randazzo from Hailey's Hope Foundation. She offered immediate emotional support as she too had been in our shoes 10 years prior and only another parent who has watched their child struggle in the NICU can truly understand the feelings and emotions racing through us. In that moment we were very grateful to have her by our side. Once we got settled at the children's hospital we had a chance to speak with Debra and her sister Donna, Board members of Hailey's Hope Foundation. They were kind, caring, warm, and incredibly supportive. They provided us with both emotional and financial support including a financial package containing gas cards, meal cards, a breast pump rental, a parking pass, and they were able to get us a room at the Ronald McDonald house the very day our son was checked into the hospital. For this we were incredibly grateful! With the support of Hailey's Hope Foundation we were able to focus our complete attention on our son and his recovery without the worry of financial burdens. During our one-month stay at the children's hospital, Debra and Donna continued to check on us through phone, text, and visits offering us emotional support and education on caring for our premature son. Thanks to the wonderful care Dominic received he is now home and thriving! My husband and I are forever grateful to Hailey's Hope Foundation and will never forget their total support in one of our darkest times.

Quality Assurance Home Inspections

Inspected once, inspected right!

BUYING A HOME IN TODAY'S MARKET CAN BE A CHALLENGING ENDEAVOR. THERE ARE MANY FACTORS TO CONSIDER, AND MANY DIFFERENT PROFESSIONALS TO CONSULT, LIKE REAL ESTATE AGENTS, BANKERS, LAWYERS, TITLE SEARCH COMPANIES, ETC.

While all of these are vital and important, there is only one professional who is loyal to you and has your best interest in mind. Your Home Inspector is one of the only professionals whose payment is not contingent upon your home purchase. Because of this, your Home Inspector is impartial and focused exclusively on thoroughly inspecting your home, and protecting your interest. Don't expose yourself to potential safety or structural surprises. Many times these can prove to be expensive fixes. When you consider the amount of money you're investing into your home and your future, the price of a home inspection may very well prove to be the best money you ever spend.
